

The Miner.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 27, 1882.

Subscription, $5.00 per Year

Local Intelligence.

SATURDAY.

The stages are, once more arriving on time.

San Francisco Mountain is covered, with 5 feet of snow.

Forty prisoners are confined in the Territorial Prison at Yuma.

Tiptop stock is quoted in San Francisco at 85 per share.

Mr. and Mrs. Rosborough have taken up residence opposite this office.

C. B. Foster, Col. Bigelow and Mr. Craigne started out yesterday on mining business.

The streets of Prescott look to-day as if they had been under water for six months.

C. Y. Shelton has been appointed postmaster at Walker District post office.

Hon. Murat Masterson is conducting the affairs of the Democrat during the illness of Mr. Hamilton.

A post office has been established at Marana, Yavapai county. F. H. Ellis is postmaster.

F. W. Blake, who has been down with "epizootic" for a couple of days is again at his post.

Two freight trains on the Southern Pacific collided at Dos Palmas Wednesday night. No one was injured.

Col. Tiffany, against whom such a strong fight was made by the southern papers, in regard to the agency of the San Carlos Reservation, has been re-appointed as agent.

Pinalore, with a full company and chorus new scenes and costumes, will be presented for the first time next Tuesday night. No one should fail to attend.

A Mexican, who has been placing miners in Weaver District, recently brought into Antelope station two nuggets of gold, which weighed four and seven ounces. A fair showing for dry placers.

A letter written to the MINER, before the snowstorm, states that the entire road between Prescott and Wickenburg, via Antelope Hill, is in a better condition than it has been for a long time.

First Lieutenant H. P. Kingsbury, Sixth Cavalry, has received orders to proceed to Alazan Island, Cal., with the following prisoners, George M. Lewis and Matthew H. Clarke, at Whipple Barracks, A. T.

Charles Yates has arrived at his home in England, from which place he recently wrote to some Prescottites. He returns in about a month, and like all others who go, thinks no place like Arizona.

A large shed in the corral of Andy Whitelaw on Cortez street, on which snow had gathered to a considerable depth, fell yesterday afternoon, with a terrible crash. Luckily no animals were under it at the time, else serious damage might have resulted.

MONDAYS.

Several freight teams arrived in town to day.

Jerry Sullivan is in town from William Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Judge Hargrave departed this morning for California.

The Central Arizona Mining Co. produced $4,000.00 over expenses last month.

A steamer leaves Yuma, Monday, Jan. 29, 1882, for Pollicino Landing and intermediate landings.

There has been a postoffice established at Meeksville, in this county, with James McLean as postmaster.

Messrs. Morgan and Benson did not come to Prescott, as the Herald stated, but have returned to Tucson.

The Tombstone Tribune, of Jan. 4th, containing the result of the election in that city, arrived to-day. Fast time.

Sheriff Walker left Prescott this morning for Antelope, the scene of the late tragedy, to hunt for Grass, the murderer.

All the Mexicans heretofore employed on the Southern Pacific have been discharged. Chinamen have been put in their place.

There are 15,000 acres of land within the limits of the San Carlos Reservation, which can be irrigated. About 1,000 acres have been brought under cultivation.

Messrs. Lester and Magender have sold the General Lee mine, Cedar district, Mohave county, to J. Jerome, who represents a San Francisco firm, for $50,000.

Richard Gird, of Tombstone, is building a fine house in San Bernardino, Cal., and the local papers state that it will be the handsomest residence in the county.

It is reported that Hon. A. C. Baker and J. Alexander, of Phoenix, intend purchasing the Herald of that place. That section of the country needs a good Democratic paper.

L. K. Welton, of the firm of Walton & Grimes, merchants at Mineral Park, arrived, by Gilmore & Salisbury's stage, Saturday, and departs to-morrow for Mohave.

Sixty citizens of Phoenix have agreed not to receive mutilated coin. The coins are gradually working into Prescott, and some effort will soon have to be made to stop its circulation in this burg.

Would it not be a good idea for some of Prescott's liberal-minded men to give a series of lectures for the benefit of a Free Library fund. Tucson and Tombstone have done it with good results.

Coasting and skating is now in order, and the pale moon light blusies as the timid lover nervously claps the angelic form of the idol of his heart in his arms and places her once more firmly on his pins.

San Diego and Los Angeles counties, in California, had another visitation of rain. The lack of the southern part of that State holds out some hope that the threatened dry season may yet be averted.

Three court reporters, six copyists and as many more lawyers are employed taking testimony in the Contention vs. Head Center mining suit, now going on in Tombstone. Would like to have the property when the case gets into the Courts.

Mr. N. C. Shiekels, a Prescott merchant and a former partner of Judge Davis of this town, came in on Sunday's Prescott team. We hope Mr. Shiekels will locate in Mohave county. There is plenty of room for live men in this growing county. Alta Arizona.

We have observed the Miner and Manufacturer published at New Mexico, N. M., and cheerfully place it on our exchange list. It is devoted to the mining and manufacturing interests of the Southwest. The paper faithfully devotes a page to Northern Arizona.

Dr. Goodrich, dentist, has arrived in Prescott on his annual trip, and can be found at the Williams House, Parker, Room 1. It is due to the naming and manufacturing interests of the Southwest. The paper faithfully devotes a page to Northern Arizona.

TUESDAY.

One person arrived per Black Canyon stage to-day.

The Tiptop Mining Company paid, during 1881, $100,000 in dividends.

Virgil Earl is now in a better condition, and hopes are entertained of his recovery.

From appearance a heavy storm has prevailed in the mountains south and north of town.

The witnesses in the late hanging case at Price & King's camp have not yet been brought in.

A. Craigie, Bert Foster and Col. Bigelow have returned from their trip to the Dosaia.

Nothing has yet been heard of the whereabouts of Grass, who killed Boline, at Antelope, on Saturday.

The Los Angeles Commercial says Hon. T. J. Butler is visiting in this city his old friend, R. R. Bryant.

A meeting of the Directors of the Prescott Railroad was held last night. We are unaware of the business done.

Hall & Poe's new butcher shop, on Gurley Street, is rapidly approaching completion. It will be, when completed, one and a half stories high.

A telegram from Albuquerque, received today, states that C. W. Bond leaves that city for home to-morrow. He is accompanied by several mining men.

The City Council of Tombstone passed an ordinance prohibiting the carrying of concealed weapons, and under that act Doc Holliday, and John R. Ringo, were arrested at Walker District post office.

Hom. Murat Masterson is conducting the affairs of the Democrat during the illness of Mr. Hamilton.

A post office has been established at Marana, Yavapai county. F. H. Ellis is postmaster.

F. W. Blake, who has been down with "epizootic" for a couple of days is again at his post.

Two freight trains on the Southern Pacific collided at Dos Palmas Wednesday night. No one was injured.

Col. Tiffany, against whom such a strong fight was made by the southern papers, in regard to the agency of the San Carlos Reservation, has been re-appointed as agent.

Pinalore, with a full company and chorus new scenes and costumes, will be presented for the first time next Tuesday night. No one should fail to attend.
